PLEASE READ BEFORE BIDDING

Coins and medals are sold at so much per lot and no lot will be separated The auctioneer will accept an advance of 1 cent up to 50c., then 5c. up to $2.50, when 10c. advance must be bid, up to $10, when no advance under 25 cents will be accepted. You can bid anything up to 50c., after that the bid must be 55c., or 60c. Such offers as 51c., $1.01, etc., are unavailable.

Auction sales are strictly for cash. Parties unknown to me and bidding for the first time, must give bank or other reliable reference.

Forward your bids as early as possible, as thousands of bids have to be entered. Do not make ridiculously low bids, such as 10 and 15c. on foreign silver coins worth several times over as bullion. Write your bids plainly, with a pen if practicable. I have taken special pains to carefully and fairly describe each lot.

Where the number of pieces in a lot is not given after the description, there is but one piece in the lot.

The coins, etc , in each lot are different unless otherwise described.

Be sure you bid on the lot you wish to buy

All coins, etc., are genuine unless otherwise described.

My charge for executing bids will be 5 per cent. No charge made for bidding except for lots actually purchased Remit by money order or New York draft, as the usual exchange fee will be deducted from checks.

We will price your catalogue for $1.00.

TWENTY-EIGHTH SALE.

333 1851. $50. Octagonal. 887 Thous., "50 D. C." the "50" inense. Edge stamped: "Augustus Humbert, United States Assayer of Gold, California, 1851." Rev. engine turned and has "50" stamped in center. Excepting one or two minute scratches, so hair-like as to be insignificant the piece is absolutely uncirculated, and has considerable mint lustre, the obverse being almost proof-like. It is a perfect specimen, sharply struck, and is undoubtedly the finest slug extant. .Much superior in every way to the one in the Wilson sale which sold for $275.00. Its former owner, Mr. Chas. G. Watson, was private secretary to Ellis H. Roberts and D. N. Morgan, Treasurers of the United States. His father brought the piece from California in the early '50s. Mr. Watson stated that the late Dewitt Smith (whose collection of slugs was supposed to be unapproached) tried at least four times to buy this piece from him.

RARE PAPER MONEY.

376 U. S. Notes. $1. Rev. with George and Martha Washington. Uncirculated sheet of four notes, #9, 10, 11 and 12. Third sheet issued. The reverse of each note bears the autograph signature of D. N. Morgan, also the date "July 23, 1896." At top of margin on obverse Mr. Morgan wrote: "For Charles Gregg Watson, Washington, D. C., July 23, 1896," and on bottom margin: "Sealed July 15, 1896, 12.15 P. M. Issued July 23rd, 1896, by D. N. Morgan. I have signed drafts for more than $500,000,000 with this pen. D. N. M." A letter from Mr. Watson, their former owner, who was private Secretary to Mr. Morgan, states that only six similar sheets were issued, and those to treasury officials only. United States Notes, $2. Series of 1896. Notes 13, 14, 15 and 16. Fourth sheet issued. Reclining female. Rev. Fulton and Morse. Each reverse bears autograph signature of Mr. Morgan, as above. Top of margin on obv. reads as last sheet, but bottom reads: "Sealed 2.16 P. M., July 27, 1896. Issued August 20th, 1896. I have signed with this pen treasury drafts, checks, transfers, orders, U. S. bonds, etc. amounting to more than a billion dollars. D. N. Morgan." A letter from Mr. Watson certifying to above accompanies the lot. 8 notes. 1 lot.

COME TO THE NUMISMATIC MEETING TONIGHT!

The meeting of the New York Numismatic Club, held on February 12th last, at Keen's Old English Chop House, 36th St., corner 6th Avenue, this city, was a great success, and over 35 collectors were in attendance from all parts of the country. Do not fail to attend to-night's meeting, which promises to be of exceptional interest.
